Awarded to

for having successfully completed the FOODSCHÄRVICE E-LEARNING
by Schär Foodservice

After completing this e-learning, the participant has a general insight about working with gluten-free products in the catering & hospitality industry.

The contents of the e-learning are, on the one hand, the nutritional approach to the topic of gluten, celiac disease and gluten-free products and, on the other hand, how to ensure a safe consumption of gluten-free meals in the respective role in the company for those affected.

The average duration for completing Foodschärvice e-learning is approximately 4 hours.
